

UT345C LPG Tank Level Checker

UT345C is a portable LPG tank level checker adopting ultrasonic detection technology. This product can quickly determine how much gas is left in the tank by LED indication. It is easy to use, accurate and reliable.

Specifications	Instructions
Language	EN, FR, DE, IT, ES, SV, PL, CZ
Applicable gas tanks/bottles	Steel and aluminum standard propane or butane LPG (liquefied petroleum gas) storage tanks with 8-14 inches (approx. 200-350mm) in diameter
LED indication	Green: Liquid detected at this level Red: No liquid Green and red keep flashing: Measuring
Sound indication	√
Measurement method	Press the probe 90 degrees vertically at different positions of the bottle to measure and then check the LED color
Operating temperature/humidity	-15~40°C ≤85%RH
Storage temperature	-10~60°C ≤75%RH
Drop test	0.5m
Features
Pen-like design, compact and portable
Simple determination without additional accessories required
Red and green LED indication
Easy to measure
Come with a flashlight

